

A message from Keith Low

Keith Low
(your National Liberal Party candidate)

Keith a retired postman, runs 'Support your local Shop' and 'Support St. Georges Day' campaigns. He is also a Human Rights activist, presently concentrating on Tamil rights in Sri Lanka.

Fellow liberals,

I joined the National Liberal Party because they campaign against 'Big Brother' snooping by the State yet, unlike the Liberal Democrat Party, also believe in National Independence.

Liberal Democrat MP Chris Huhne has reneged on his manifesto promise to support a referendum on the new EU (Lisbon Treaty) Constitution. This is a betrayal of trust and liberal democracy.

Without trust democracy dies - without democracy liberalism dies.

The European Union is an Empire ruled by faceless bureaucrats but this doesn't seem to worry former SDP member Chris Huhne MP, a pro-EU Social Democrat, rather than a pro-democracy Liberal Democrat.

If you agree then punish Chris Huhne MP and reaffirm your belief in liberal democracy by voting for the National Liberal Party (NLP). We believe in British Independence, power to the people (including the greater use of referendums) and a Sovereign Parliament.
